STATE LIMITED ENGLISH PROFICIENCY AID

Programs for limited English proficient (LEP) students approved under Commissioner's Regulations Part 154 generate aid in either of two ways: BOCES Aid, for approved BOCES LEP programs, and LEP Aid for approved district-generated LEP programs. The following districts have approved programs for limited English proficient students. The number of students represent those students provided services through an approved Part 154 program in 1986-87. Projects marked with a single asterisk (*) under the column labeled "Students Served" are new projects. Those marked with double asterisks () are programs in which students are served by a BOCES-conducted program.

STATE BILINGUAL CATEGORICAL PROGRAM

Two-Way Bilingual Education Programs

Two-Way Bilingual Education Programs involve both limited English proficient (LEP) and English proficient (EP) students, for the goal of total functional bilingualism for both groups of students. These students receive instruction in and through their native language and their second (new) language. The programs support the requirements in the Regents Action Plan for secondary language learning in grades K-12. State funding to conduct Two-Way Bilingual Education Programs during the 1985-86 school year was available on a competitive basis.

This Federal program is authorized under the Emergency Immigrant Education Act of 1984, Title VI of the Education Amendments of 1984 (Public Law 98-511). The program provides grants for supplementary educational services and additional basic instructional services such as: English language instruction, special materials and supplies, bilingual educational services, English as a second language (ESL), and immersion programs. Funding is provided for the costs associated with providing these services for all eligible immigrant children. Funds may also be used for essential in-service training for personnel who will be providing supplementary educational services or basic instructional services to eligible immigrant children.

SPECIAL LEGISLATIVE PROJECTS FUNDED UNDER THE GOVERNOR'S DEFICIENCY BUDGET

The New York State Legislature, recognizing special educational needs throughout the State which are not being met through existing funding sources, is empowered to enact legislation through which appropriations are made to both public and private educational organizations for specific purposes. The number of such projects and accompanying levels of funding vary. As the activities funded are very diverse, the responsibility of administering and monitoring these projects, and providing related technical assistance, is assigned to that component of the State Education Department which has expertise in that sphere of activities. The following special legislative projects are administered by the Bureau of Bilingual Education.
